Announcements – Season and individual tickets are available for the Central Wisconsin Symphony Orchestra’s fiftieth anniversary year. November 3rd is the season’s kickoff. Performing with the orchestra is recording artist Roberta Flack and company.

Bell Ringer – CONGRATULATIONS TO THE MAYOR!
City of Wisconsin Rapids Mayor, Vernon “Bud” Verjinsky, recently went to Washington, D.C. to receive a Home Town Leadership Award from Wal-Mart. A check which accompanied the award was $5,000. It will be directed towards economic development.

*25 Years Ago This Week.....

News – Dr. Art Hayward reported that Milt Schneider is improving and made his first tour outside the hospital.
Bill Goetz’ resignation was accepted

Assembly for Paul Harris Fellows – President, Robert Dickinson, announced that there will be an assembly in November honoring two Paul Harris fellows, Rev. Robert Kingdon and Mr. Lee Jens. It will be a husband and wife affair, and we should have a good turnout. The families of those honored will be our guests.

Free Lunch – Tom Marshall, present with badge

65 Years Ago This Week.....

Vincent Skilling, law enforcement officer of the Wisconsin Conservation Department in this district, gave us views and side lights on his job protecting our wild life. The pictures, due to mechanical difficulty, could not be shown.

New Members – George W. Mead has been fully reinstated and again is a full fledged Rotarian. The Ripples extends its good wishes and a welcome from all our members. Charlie Kruger is now again fully reinstated after lapse of about a year. Glad to have you back as you really have been a standby for years past.
